

Katy Prairie Conservancy

THE KATY PRAIRIE – FLAT OUT WONDERFUL

PrairieWorks Volunteer

Help KPC restore wildlands!

Description: PrairieWorks volunteers assist in maintaining KPC's Coastal Prairie Native Seed Nursery, combat invasive species, mulch trails, clear fences of vegetation, etc.

Where: KPC Field Office and other KPC Preserves

When: Fridays from 9 AM –12 PM & some Saturdays

Who: Individuals and groups.

Time Commitment: Weekly sessions of 1 to 3 hours. Volunteers can work as many or as few sessions as they choose.

Physical Requirements: Bending, kneeling, or sitting on the ground; some light lifting.

Experience/Knowledge: None required.

Training: Available during volunteer session.

What to wear: Closed-toed shoes, tall socks, long pants, long-sleeved shirt, hat.

What to bring: Gardening gloves. All other tools are provided.

Volunteer benefits: PrairieWorks volunteers are eligible for special prairie restoration classes and field trips.

The Katy Prairie Conservancy (KPC) is a private non-profit organization dedicated to saving a sustainable portion of the Flat Out Wonderful Katy Prairie located just west of Houston.

KPC has protected over 13,000 acres (teal in map above) since 1996.

Katy Prairie Conservancy
3015 Richmond Ave., Suite 230
Houston, TX 77098-3114
713.523.6135
www.katyprairie.org

Photo Credits

Greg Lavaty: Blue-eyed grass
Michael Morton: Volunteer with brush